

Wondering what you can do with your major?

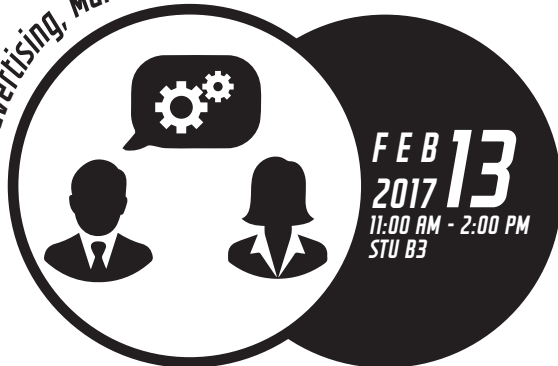

Looking for an internship?

This event is for you!

Investigate Industries and Internships (i3)

is designed for students exploring career options, as well as students looking to take the next step. At an i3 event, you can network with employers looking to hire interns and hear them speak about how they broke into their respective industries. Participating employers have available internships for the current and following semester.

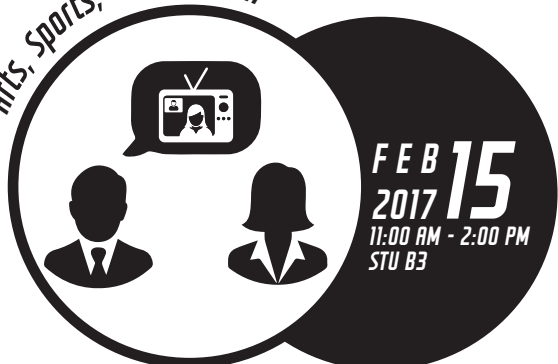

Advertising, Marketing, & PR

Healthcare, Biotech, & Sciences

Arts, Sports, & Television

Start-ups & Small Businesses

